

NC Senator, Don Davis, Visits ECVC

Press Release, February 1, 2010: NC Senator, Don Davis, will visit ECVC (Eastern Carolina Vocational Center) located at 2100 N. Greene St. on Wednesday, February 3, 2010 at 3:30PM. Senator Davis, who serves Wayne, Pitt and Green Counties, requested this visit and tour from ECVC President, Daneel le Roux.

ECVC, the 2008 Pitt County Industry of the Year, is a company with the social mission of “helping people with disabilities attain a higher quality of life through achievement of their vocational goals.” The non-profit is self-sustained through Federal government contracts. ECVC supplies the majority of the batteries, certificate frames and battery terminal lugs used by the United States Military.

Davis, who will run for a second term, was recently appointed by NC Senate President Pro Tempore, Marc Basnight, to the Commission on Military Affairs.

The Senator has a BS degree from the US Air Force Academy and a MA degree in Sociology from ECU. He currently teaches Sociology at Lenoir Community College and resides, with his family, in Snow Hill, NC where he serves as Mayor.
