

2100 N. Greene Street Greenville, NC 27834

ECVC President Announces Retirement, New President Named

Press Release: June 23, 2010: After serving as ECVC's President since 1982, Daneel L. le Roux, officially announced his retirement today. After this announcement, ECVC's Board of Directors voted to accept ECVC's current Executive Vice President, Bob Jones, as the new President for the company. Le Roux will remain at ECVC as CEO during a transition period until December 2011.

Mr. Jones has been with ECVC since 1978. He began his career as the Recycling Production Supervisor and then, Recycling Department Manager. In 1988, he was promoted to Production Director and later to Executive Vice President. Originally from Pittsburg, California; Jones attended Old Dominion University and ECU. He is a U.S. Army veteran and between his father, his siblings, and himself, the family has 59 years of active duty in the U.S. Army and 22 years of Army Reserve Duty.

ECVC's Board Chairman, James Dupree stated, "I am very excited to have Bob move into the President's position at ECVC. He is highly qualified for this position and I am sure he will do a superb job. He is a man of high integrity with a proven record of serving ECVC in several capacities over 32 years. We are very fortunate to have a person of his qualifications already on board. I look forward to working with him as we move forward."

Formed in 1965, ECVC is a non-profit company with the social mission of "helping people with disabilities attain a higher quality of life through the achievement of their vocational goals." Today ECVC is self-sustained through federal government contracts (batteries, picture/certificate frames, battery terminal lugs, drill bits, and a Servmart Store at MCAS Cherry Point), local government contracts (job placement & training, recycling, and janitorial services for Pitt and its surrounding counties), and commercial services (custom framing & chair caning – Fine Finishes).

For additional information or interviews, contact Susan Daughtry at 252-317-3123 or sdaughtry@ecvcinc.com.