

Our 2009 Keynote Speaker, Mark Gilmore

“A First-Class Guest Speaker”

Mark is part of the NISH Speakers Bureau and works in janitorial services for a company similar to ECVC called Challenge Enterprises located in Green Cove Springs, Florida near Jacksonville.

He began his career path after graduating from high school with a special degree. Mark started off working in the warehouse at Challenge Enterprises but, due to encouragement from the staff, he tried several different positions - recycling, landscaping, and working on a tree farm. He then tried janitorial and has been a part of the janitorial team for the last 7 years. He has excelled on the janitorial team and is entrusted with cleaning the judges’ chambers in the courthouse.

Mark is a Special Olympian and has won first place in bowling. His job is very important to him since it enables him to pay his bills. Several years ago, he was able to purchase his own home. His speech will be very inspiring for all.

Welcome, Mark!
